Southeast Florida Regional Partnership
Memorandums of Understanding, Letters of Support, and Resolutions of Support

About the Southeast Florida Regional Partnership
The Southeast Florida Regional Partnership is a growing partnership of almost 200 organizations representing the diverse population, interests and geography of the seven-county region. Partners and supportive organizations include county and city governments; regional planning councils; individual businesses and business associations such as chambers and economic development organizations; workforce development agencies; the region’s transportation planning organizations including the metropolitan and transportation planning organizations, Florida Department of Transportation, Miami-Dade Expressway Authority, and South Florida Regional Transportation Authority; public and private universities; colleges; school boards; leagues of cities; housing authorities; community redevelopment agencies; health planning organizations; state agencies; water management districts; urban leagues; human services alliances; community foundations; civic associations; environmental and smart growth advocacy groups; public health organizations; community-based groups; and cultural and arts councils.

Partners and supporters include state and national organizations such as 1000 Friends of Florida, the Florida Redevelopment Association, the Collins Center for Public Policy, the Urban Land Institute, Social Compact, and ICLEI – Local Governments for Sustainability. We are also pleased to have the support of our state and federal elected representatives including the nine members of Southeast Florida’s United States Congressional Delegation, Florida’s United States Senators, and the members of the Southeast Florida state legislative delegation.
