

EXHIBIT “I”

SR 7/ US 441 COLLABORATIVE

External Stakeholder Analysis Worksheet

Composite Results of Individual Worksheets

Stakeholder: Broward Alliance

How can/does this stakeholder influence us?

- Leadership

What do we need from them?

- Experience, Support
- Advice

How important are they as members of the Steering Committee?

Extremely Important=Voting Rights on Steering Committee

Very Important=Ex-Officio on Steering Committee

- 2 Important=Encourage Collaborative Membership and potential TAC representation (this category would be not be on the Steering Committee but could/would be a Collaborative Member)

Stakeholder: Broward Metropolitan Planning Organization

How can/does this stakeholder influence us?

- Establish long range plans, prioritize/rank, countywide
- Their expertise
- Supports projects at county level, provides funding, coordination
- By some of their findings on the metro situation
- Technical Assistance, planning, funds

What do we need from them?

- Support, take project to top of lists, money
- Guidance
- Money and technical support
- Their total cooperation in their planning to coincide with our project
- Coordination of collaborative work with county/state/federal programs

How important are they as members of the Steering Committee?

- 2 Extremely Important=Voting Rights on Steering Committee

3 Very Important=Ex-Officio on Steering Committee

Important=Encourage Collaborative Membership and potential TAC representation (this category would be not be on the Steering Committee but could/would be a Collaborative Member)

Stakeholder: U.S. Legislative Delegation

How can/does this stakeholder influence us?

- Advocate for projects, allocate funding, propose legislation
- Affect future projects by supporting/not-supporting programs
- Leadership
- Federal money and programs

What do we need from them?

- All of the above
- Funding
- Support and funding
- Advice
- Funds and technical assistance

How important are they as members of the Steering Committee?

Extremely Important=Voting Rights on Steering Committee

Very Important=Ex-Officio on Steering Committee

- 5 Important=Encourage Collaborative Membership and potential TAC representation (this category would be not be on the Steering Committee but could/would be a Collaborative Member)

Stakeholder: Palm Beach County

How can/does this stakeholder influence us?

- Coordination, impacts of projects on U.S.
- Continue work we have started in their respective counties
- No need for this county
- Provide input on how Palm Beach County projects relate to Broward County/potential competition for state/grant/funding
- Comparison on projects already completed and how we can build on achievements or mistakes

What do we need from them?

- Coordination
- Provide transition links
- Their ideas

How important are they as members of the Steering Committee?

Extremely Important=Voting Rights on Steering Committee

Very Important=Ex-Officio on Steering Committee

- 4 Important=Encourage Collaborative Membership and potential TAC representation (this category would be not be on the Steering Committee but could/would be a Collaborative Member)

Stakeholder: Broward County Department of Planning and Environmental Protection

How can/does this stakeholder influence us?

- Technical assistance, planning, funds
- Provides transportation and environmental coordination county-wide
- Should be on steering committee
- Make sure that the environment is not disturbed
- Advice of the environmental problems we may face

What do we need from them?

- Coordination of collaborative work with county/state/federal programs
- Technical Support
- Information – rules to follow

How important are they as members of the Steering Committee?

- 1 Extremely Important=Voting Rights on Steering Committee

Very Important=Ex-Officio on Steering Committee

- 3 Important=Encourage Collaborative Membership and potential TAC representation (this category would be not be on the Steering Committee but could/would be a Collaborative Member)

Stakeholder: Florida Department of Transportation

How can/does this stakeholder influence us?

- Owner of R.O.W., comp plan keeper, etc, regulators, funders
- FDOT has jurisdiction
- Their experience and knowledge of all aspects of roadways
- Provides funding/owns property in corridor
- This is the project that will be doing the work on this project

What do we need from them?

- Input, comments, funds
- Support and funding
- Advice
- Funding, coordination, use of R.O.W.

- The input as to the feasibility to do the work we are asking for

How important are they as members of the Steering Committee?

Extremely Important=Voting Rights on Steering Committee

- 5 Very Important=Ex-Officio on Steering Committee

Important=Encourage Collaborative Membership and potential TAC representation (this category would be not be on the Steering Committee but could/would be a Collaborative Member)

Stakeholder: South Florida Regional Planning Council

How can/does this stakeholder influence us?

- Provides transportation and environmental coordination county-wide
- They are the real starting point for this effort
- Regional “big picture” perspective/ability to be neutral and work with all municipalities
- As a leader
- Provide perspective of region, facilitate group activities

What do we need from them?

- Technical support
- Guidance, regional perspective, research
- Planning and guidance
- Technical support, information
- Organization, facilitation, technical support

How important are they as members of the Steering Committee?

Extremely Important=Voting Rights on Steering Committee

- 4 Very Important=Ex-Officio on Steering Committee

- 2 Important=Encourage Collaborative Membership and potential TAC representation (this category would be not be on the Steering Committee but could/would be a Collaborative Member)

Stakeholder: Broward League of Cities

How can/does this stakeholder influence us?

- The ability to co-join the cities in question
- County-wide coordination of cities
- Not needed – redundant
- Information

What do we need from them?

- Technical support and information

- Advice

How important are they as members of the Steering Committee?

Extremely Important=Voting Rights on Steering Committee

Very Important=Ex-Officio on Steering Committee

- 4 Important=Encourage Collaborative Membership and potential TAC representation (this category would be not be on the Steering Committee but could/would be a Collaborative Member)

Stakeholder: Broward Legislative Delegation

How can/does this stakeholder influence us?

- They can make the laws we may need to govern this project
- Advocates for funding and legislation
- Federal money and programs

What do we need from them?

- Funding
- Money and change in laws
- Funds, technical assistance

How important are they as members of the Steering Committee?

Extremely Important=Voting Rights on Steering Committee

- 1 Very Important=Ex-Officio on Steering Committee

- 2 Important=Encourage Collaborative Membership and potential TAC representation (this category would be not be on the Steering Committee but could/would be a Collaborative Member)

Stakeholder: Florida Department of Community Affairs

How can/does this stakeholder influence us?

- Owner of R.O.W., comp plan keeper, etc, regulators, funders
- We be able to get to the various public meetings to inform of the project
- Funding projects, state laws, implements projects
- Give us information on how this roadway will benefit our community

What do we need from them?

- Input, comments, funds
- Their ability to perhaps get to a larger number of people than we can
- Money and consideration of projects
- Support and funding
- Input as to the affects on community living /money

How important are they as members of the Steering Committee?

- Extremely Important=Voting Rights on Steering Committee
- 2 Very Important=Ex-Officio on Steering Committee
- 3 Important=Encourage Collaborative Membership and potential TAC representation (this category would be not be on the Steering Committee but could/would be a Collaborative Member)

Stakeholder: South Florida Water Management District

How can/does this stakeholder influence us?

- Owns right-of-way within the corridor/can fund improvements and permit improvements
- By directing us as to the rights we may have concerning water
- Drainage guidelines

What do we need from them?

- Coordination/access to use of R.O.W.
- Support
- Their ability to grant, if needed, the rights we may have pertaining water
- Advice

How important are they as members of the Steering Committee?

- Extremely Important=Voting Rights on Steering Committee
- 2 Very Important=Ex-Officio on Steering Committee
- 2 Important=Encourage Collaborative Membership and potential TAC representation (this category would be not be on the Steering Committee but could/would be a Collaborative Member)

Stakeholder: Miami-Dade County

How can/does this stakeholder influence us?

- Coordination, impacts of projects on U.S.
- Continue work we have started in their respective counties
- Provide input on project as it relates to Miami-Dade County/potential competition for funding
- As a close neighbor their ideas can be helpful as we need to be together for the betterment of this roadway

What do we need from them?

- Coordination

- Provide transition links
- Unity in this endeavor

How important are they as members of the Steering Committee?

Extremely Important=Voting Rights on Steering Committee

Very Important=Ex-Officio on Steering Committee

- 4 Important=Encourage Collaborative Membership and potential TAC representation (this category would be not be on the Steering Committee but could/would be a Collaborative Member)

Stakeholder: U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development

How can/does this stakeholder influence us?

- With their ability to provide us with funding for development
- Provides money, implements projects, training
- Funds, regulations

What do we need from them?

- Their expertise in urban development
- Potential funding
- Money
- Money, technical assistance, perhaps regulatory relief

How important are they as members of the Steering Committee?

Extremely Important=Voting Rights on Steering Committee

- 1 Very Important=Ex-Officio on Steering Committee

- 3 Important=Encourage Collaborative Membership and potential TAC representation (this category would be not be on the Steering Committee but could/would be a Collaborative Member)